A special edition with a nod to the comic book series

The By Jove edition is an adventure created thanks to the exceptional encounter of two worlds, the one of the single malt and the comic book.

Belgium loves rubbing shoulders with surrealism. Without a doubt, no-one could have imagined a meeting between graphic art and a Belgian whisky. For this first "By Jove" production, we have chosen "The Yellow M" series, where the story leads our two investigators from one surprise to another.

Four editions for four years of ageing. Various illustrations taken from this iconic comic book series are shown on the back label. This number four is also shown in the comic book series, it's up to you to find it.

We wish you an as qualitative tasting as this adventure that has been delighting many readers for decades.
