Presentation

Ever since its creation in 2002, the Brussels Design Market has evolved into the « the largest design market in Europe ».

This event, that takes place twice a year (March and September), has become one of the main events in the international vintage design calendar.

Maintaining its particular atmosphere that characterizes flea markets, the Brussels Design Market has continued to increase qualitatively and attracting more and more visitors every years.

Dealers, collectors, professionals and amateurs from all over Europe, come together in Brussels to search for fabulous vintage items, designed in the last century. Visitors can discover original and iconic pieces from Italian, French, American, and Scandinavian designers. These are created by the biggest names in the history of design, such as Sottsass, Le Corbusier, Eames, or Jacobsen and Panton.

Key dates

2002 - 1st EDITION

The 1st edition takes place over one day and is held outside (in tents) on the place Saint-Lambert in Woluwé. There are around thirty exhibitors and only 3 or 4 international vendors (Dutch and German).

2010 - 1st INTERIOR EDITION !

Eight years after its creation, the Brussels Design Market moves and takes place in the maritime station of Tour & Taxis. This allows the vendors to bring their vehicles directly to the exhibition site and to unpack their goods from the back of their vehicles. This year, the duration of the event will be extended to two days, allowing dealers from all over Europe to attend the event. The event then features 80 exhibitors and takes place twice a year, with editions in September and April.

2016 - 8000M² OF VINTAGE DESIGN !

The Brussels Design Market moves once again and finds a new home in the exhibition halls of Tour & Taxis.

Eight thousand square metres solely designated to 20th century design!

This location change allows the event to evolve in a very positive way, and to organize the exhibition halls in two clearly distinct atmospheres.

The first hall called "Expo" permits the exhibitors to properly showcase their merchandise through their stand, which is equipped with carpets, partition walls, and electricity.

The second hall called "Market" is inspired by the original concept of the fair, meaning that visitors can browse products displayed directly on the floor.

SEPTEMBER 2019

As well as the others editions, more than 100 international dealers show their vintage collections in september.

For this new edition, the Brussels Design Market will come with some surprises.

In collaboration with Design September, Flanders DC and Wallonie Design, an area will be dedicated to the contemporary design to highlight the talent of belgian designers!
