

SAVE THE DATE - JEWELRY, WATCHES, VINTAGE HERMÈS
AUCTIONS - FROM 17TH TO 19TH JULY 2019, IN MONTE-CARLO

Artcurial will return to the Principality for a three-day auction on the 17th, 18th and 19th July 2019. Artcurial takes up residence in its summer quarters following the inauguration of the new exhibition space in the heart of Monte Carlo, and the launch of a new cultural summer project, Monaco Sculptures taking place from April to August 2019. Four prestigious auctions will also be hosted at Hotel Hermitage: Jewellery, Watches, Le Temps est Féminin and Hermès Summer Collection.

MONTE-CARLO - Artcurial welcomes French, Monegasques and international collectors for a week of prestigious sales in the Principality. From 17th to 19th July 2019, at Hotel Hermitage, the house will orchestrate Jewellery, Watch and Vintage Hermès auctions which have fetched more than €10 M each summer, over the years.

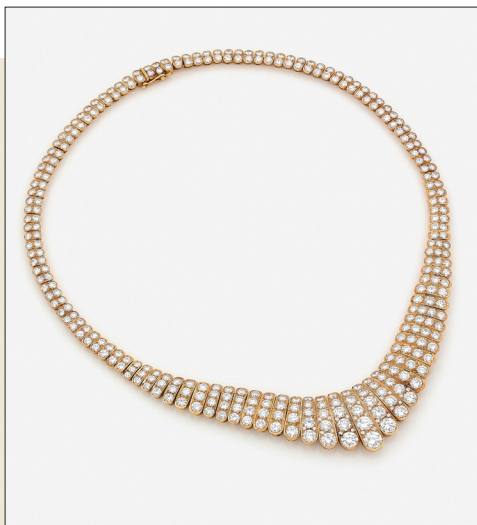

Reinforcing its leading position on the Riviera with the launch of a new exhibition gallery last March in Monte-Carlo and in partnership with Monte Carlo Société des Bains de mer, Artcurial will host a new cultural event: Monaco Sculptures. Open to the public throughout the summer, it will gather together a selection of sculptures by twentieth and twenty-first centuries artists such as Takis, Caesar, Arman, Bernar Venet, Wang and Richard Deacon. During an artistic promenade through the streets of the Principality, visitors will discover a panorama of modern and contemporary sculptures, both monumental or not. The works will be included at auction on 19th July, during the closing of the traditional chapter dedicated to the most luxurious collector items.

« We are delighted to return to Monaco this summer, this year with an even stronger presence. In addition to our usual Jewellery, Watch and vintage Hermès selection, the Monaco Sculptures project allows us to forge a different kind of artistic link with Monaco and collectors who now eagerly anticipate our events. »
